Flag Displays (Made in the USA) Honoring Fallen Heroes

Hickory, NC – John Ebert had a vision to create a product which would honor fallen heroes; a product that would be available to families who had lost their loved ones in the line of duty. He wanted this product to be well designed, hand crafted, but most importantly constructed in the USA from a high quality wood. So, John decided to form his very own company in order to fulfill his dreams.

United Displays of America (www.uniteddisplaysofamerica.com) offers flag tables and display cases, specifically designed to honor the dedication of the many men and women across our nation who have devoted their lives by proudly serving in our armed forces and governmental agencies.

Made from solid Pennsylvania Cherry Wood and handcrafted by Leisters Furniture in the USA, these displays allow families of fallen heroes and military veterans to display their most treasured possessions. A variety of flag and medal displays are now available at Southern Designs (www.southerndesignsfurniture.com), located inside Hickory Furniture Mart (www.hickoryfurniture.com).

Note: John is also available for interviews. You may reach him at 828-310-6777 (cell), 828-324-6683 (home) or ebert.john@gmail.com (email). Electronic product photos are available upon request.
